Natural Gas Rates To Increase This Month

Fire Truck Displayed At Local School

The pre-school students at Elba Elementary School got a close look at a fire truck Tuesday morning. Fire Chief Lloyd Driggers was fireman Larry Goodson.

Southeast Alabama Gas District customers will pay higher rates after October 20, as a result of a series of increases in the cost of the natural gas the district distributes.

The rate adjustment must be made, according to Manager R. J. Smith, because the Gas District's supplier, Southern Natural Gas Co., has increased the price it charges the District eight times since October 16, 1975.

Effective date for domestic gas customers is October 20, and for certain industrial customers, November 1. An advertisement giving details on the new rates will be published in area newspapers next week, Smith said.

"We have really fought this thing," Smith said, "and absorbed increases through July which totaled almost 20 cents per thousand, and we must adjust our rates upward." Smith said that this month's across-the-board increase to Gas District customers will be five cents per 100 cubic feet. Minimum monthly charge will go from $1.85 to $2.00, the first such increase since 1973.

Elba Officials Take Office, Make Appointments

The new Elba Mayor and City Council were sworn into office Monday night by Circuit Judge Eris Paul. Present were members of their immediate family and representatives of the press.

After the swearing-in ceremony, the council immediately got down to the business at hand - that of making the necessary appointments to carry on the business of the City of Elba.

Carry-over councilman, John W. Sharpless, was named Mayor Pro-Tem and Councilman D. M. English was appointed to serve on the Southeast Alabama Gas Board.

Named to serve on the Water and Electric Board are Mayor Robert Folsom, Councilmen Cleo Hawkins and Mike Russell. These three elected officials will serve during their four years in elected office with two other Board members who serve five year terms and are not serving in public office. Presently the other two members are Charles P. Hayes III and Oscar Vaughan, Jr. Hayes is chairman of the Board.

Jack Prescott was re-appointed as City Clerk. M. W. Johnston was unanimously selected to continue as Police Chief. Also, Bill Stokes was named City Recorder and Garth Lindsey was again named City Attorney. Members appointed to the Planning and Zoning Board were Councilmen Jimmy Wise, Mayor Folsom and City Clerk Prescott.

The council voted to continue a sharing policy with the bank deposits between the two local banks. Mayor Folsom was instructed to work out this bonding for the city officials will continue with the same bonding firm, presently represented by Marsh Insurance Co.

Mrs. Maxie Bruce was named to direct the Community Development project in Elba. Previously Dud English had handled this, but had to resign when he took office as a councilman.

Mayor Folsom requested that the appointment of someone to sit on the Board of the Alabama Electric Co-op be postponed until a later date. There was some question about who makes this appointment - the Council or the Water and Electric Board. Also tabled until the next meeting was a request made by the Hospital Board for a council member to be appointed as liaison between the Board, the medical clinic committee and the city council. Folsom said this appointment would be made at the next meeting. The council set the meeting time as the 1st and 3rd Tuesday nights of the month at 7 p.m. Also approved was a motion for the council to operate under the guidelines of Robert's Rules of Order.

The final action was a motion that bills be paid by the 10th if money is available. The council will approve all bills at the first meeting of the month.

Former Mayor Owen Ziglar was present at the meeting and was recognized by Mayor Folsom to say a few words. Ziglar congratulated the new officials and offered his "2 cents of advice." He noted that each man had worked hard to get where he now is and he (Ziglar) felt "we have a group that can get the job done." He also had special praise for City Clerk Prescott and Police Chief Johnston.

Rainer Is Renamed To Arts Council

Governor George Wallace has appointed eight members to the Alabama State Council of the Arts and Humanities for terms ranging from one to five years.

The appointments and reappointments were made effective September 20th. They include Lamar Rainer of Elba for a term ending December 31, 1981. Rainer is one of the original members of the Council, having been appointed to the first board for a short term, getting reappointed for a full term which expired many months ago, serving until his replacement was named and now being reappointed for another term.

Brunson, Enterprise Man Of Year Winner

Merrill Shirley Passes State Bar Exam

Merrill Shirley, of Montgomery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Shirley of Elba, passed his bar examination on September 28, 1976. He will be sworn into Alabama Bar on November 1.

Shirley is presently Claims Manager with a Montgomery insurance firm. He is a 1966 graduate of Elba High School, and a 1971 graduate of Auburn University where he attended on a football scholarship.

Shirley is married to the former Elaine Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Miller of Elba. They have a 16-month old daughter, Mandy.

Brunson is a member of the board of directors of the Pea River Historical and Genealogical Society and works with the recording and preserving of records for the museum soon to be opened.

He serves on the administrative board, chairman of the work area on education, and as co-sponsor for the Junior High MYF group at the First United Methodist Church. He is a member of the YMCA board of directors and a member of the Phi Delta Kappa and Kappa Delta Pi honorary fraternities for men in education.

Brunson is married to the former Nancy Cowart and is the father of two sons.

Ever Colorful Big Jim Folsom Visits Birthplace

Former Governor James E. Folsom was back in town earlier this week to witness the swearing in of his brother, Bob, to the office of Mayor of the City of Elba.

During his abbreviated visit to Elba, Gov. Folsom, accompanied by THE ELBA CLIPPER, paid a visit to his birthplace, commonly called the old Folsom home to Elba. The one-story frame house is located 18 miles from Elba, and was recently added to the Alabama Register of Landmarks and Heritage. Mr. Folsom was born in a back room of the house on Oct. 9, 1908.

The home is approximately 85 years old, and was built on land homesteaded by Gov. Folsom's grandfather in 1850. The elder Folsom migrated to Coffee County from Columbus, Georgia.

The Folsom's moved from the home when Big Jim was only one year-old, but a brief history of the house was told by Gov. Folsom's sister, Mrs. Thelma Clark, of Elba. Mrs. Clark recalled there was a post office on the front porch run by her father, Mr. Joshua Marion Folsom, and a mail slot cut in the side of the house for people to drop letters in at night. The Folsom family lived in the house for 15-20 years. Mr. Folsom moved his family to Elba in 1909 when elected Tax Collector of Coffee County, and Mrs. Clark remembers riding the wagon to the depot in New Brockton, and taking the train to their new home in Elba.

During the ride out to the home, Gov. Folsom, relived old memories with his brother, Bob.

Big Jim recalled going to Louisiana and getting beavers to bring back to Alabama. Mr. Folsom said "Beavers are the nation's best conservationists, and are helpful everywhere."

Bob Folsom asked the former governor if he had ever heard of the Metcalf Highway

(on which they were traveling) and Big Jim replied, "Hell yea, I made the Metcalf highway!"

On the way back from the home, Gov. Folsom stopped to chat with Mr. Claude Tindol, his first-cousin. It was during their conversation that Big Jim told the origin of his famous saying "Y'all Come!"

"Back when I was about 8 years-old," said Gov. Folsom, "I can remember me and Pa sitting on the porch at Claude's (Mr. Tindol) parent's house, and getting ready to go home. Well, Pa would get ready to go, and when we got up he'd say 'Y'all come to see us. Claude's mother would say 'Y'all Come,' and before you know it we'd be sitting down again talking."

Gov. Folsom said that was the first time he can remember hearing somebody say "Y'all Come," but added it fit his campaign so well he just always used it!

Big Jim told several amusing tales during the ride back, and commented on the current courthouse controversy.

"They ought to keep two courthouses," said the former governor. "If Enterprise wants a courthouse let 'em split the county, and make two counties. Then both places could be the county seat."

Folsom said "Elba is the County seat, and should have the courthouse."

When asked about the people in Enterprise's sudden demand about having a new courthouse, Big Jim grinned and said, "When country folks go to the City sometimes they get the big head!"

Mr. Folsom returned home in the middle of the week, but promised to talk with THE CLIPPER again the next time he's in town.

Kinston Officials Take Oath Of Office

Swearing-in ceremonies for the new Kinston city officials was held last Friday afternoon at 4 p.m. "So we will be ready to go to work Monday morning," said Mayor Steve Hunko. The activities were held in the board room of the Coffee County Bank with vice president Robert Atkins administering the oaths.

Reverend A. T. Hickman, pastor of the Kinston Assembly of God, opened the ceremony with a prayer. His words were in part, "Give these city officials wisdom, knowledge, understanding, strength when needed to perform the office they are about to undertake."

Following the ceremony Hunko said, "We accept this as a challenge. We have a lot to do and will work for the future and the people of the town." He was echoed by the members of the council.

These pictured above are Atkins, Councilwoman Sara Bowden, Councilman Harold Rhodes, Mayor Steve Hunko, Councilmen Dewey Adams, Mickey Weeks and Houston Martin. None of these six were being reappointed for another term.

OCTOBER

BRAINSTORMS

With Ferrin Cox

Well, well, the Secretary of Agriculture has resigned under fire. He has put his foot in his mouth before, but this time it was just before an election. But is known for a constant flow of jokes and as was shown last week, they ain't all clean. In our current times, an ethnic joke is very often in bad taste - several weeks ago a speaker spent five minutes proving he was Polish before he told what he claimed was one of his many ethnic jokes. That particular joke, just like the one told by Buts, could have been black, white, German, Jew, Irish, Yankee, rebel American, or any other you wanted it to be but this time it was "colored" and Buts is out of a job.

A frequent visitor to our office said Monday he had advised some of his friends in New Brockton that they didn't need a courthouse - goah they already had the garbage dump! Now this can be taken in a number of ways and due to the recent heated debates in Coffee County, I had better protect this rural lifetime county citizen from his New Brockton friends by not printing his name. Actually I think he is one who long ago favored building one courthouse in New Brockton, but I'm not sure.

The Elba City Administration now has a fresh look. Monday night the new administration was sworn into office and made their routine appointments. The action moved very fast, as the group had decided their course of action in their planning sessions before taking office. This is recommended by all municipal advisors, to allow them to be ready to go to work the minute they are sworn in. Please don't expect them to have all the answers immediately, because all but Wayland Sharpless are brand new and need some time to learn the ropes. I wish them good luck.

For those who haven't heard, we will be blessed with the second exciting debate between the presidential candidates of the two leading parties. They will tell us that some of their friends are for foreign aid and some of their friends are against foreign aid - and that they are with their friends! Now that is a tired old political joke, but if it fits the situation perfectly in the eyes of you the editor.

Judge Eris Paul was completely surprised last Friday when the combined Coffee and Pike County lawyers presented him with a brand new four wheel drive sports vehicle. They even threw in a fancy shagun and some even fancier fishing equipment. As Judge said later, "I have had a lot of honors but never before have I been so overcome with emotion." Retirement gifts are not unusual, but a gift of this magnitude signifies that the man continues to go above and beyond the

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Ferrin:

Please allow me to take this means of thanking our entire community for the part everyone played in helping me celebrate 25 years in the pastorate on September 26. I have found this city a wonderful place full of responsive people. I want to particularly and personally thank you for the GREAT job you did in covering my reception that Sunday afternoon.

We are always deeply appreciative of the fine job you do in speaking out for community improvement and decency in government, as well as for your thorough coverage of local news.

Sincerely,

Edward D. Henne

LARRY COATES, ZION CHAPEL BAPTIST CHURCH

REVIVAL FOR SURVIVAL

Much is heard today about survival. All people are vitally concerned with physical survival. Many programs have been formulated and put into action for the purpose of survival. Science, Government, and many others work constantly in order to insure survival. Some people seek after, but rather a vision of God and His righteousness. Many people today seek after the pleasures and riches of this world and as a result are perishing. We can only find real happiness in the things of God.

2. Survival demands a re-affirmed faith. Galatians 2:20 says, "I am crucified with Christ; nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me." Our faith needs to be re-affirmed because of the love of God. He cares about our trials and troubles. God cares about our survival, but He wants us to trust in Him and not the things of this world to bring us through.

Paul said he was crucified with Christ. In other words, he did not live for sin, rather he lived for Christ by faith. What are you trusting in to help you?

"Judgment Scene" At Basin Baptist

Basin Baptist Church, located in the Basin Community, will have the play, "The Judgment Scene," this Sunday night at 6:30 p.m.

The youth from Northern Heights Baptist Church in Opp will present the play.

Refreshments will follow in the fellowship hall. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Mount Olive Sets Homecoming

Mount Olive Baptist Church will hold their annual homecoming event on Sunday, Oct. 10.

Q. P. Jones will deliver the 11 a.m. sermon with Kenneth Bryan as the featured vocalist. Dinner will be served at noon followed by special singing by The Believer Quartet of Samson.

Everyone is invited to attend. The church is located in the Pinelevel Community.

Westside Baptist WMU Meets

The Gleaners WMU of the Westside Baptist Church met recently in the home of Ruth Mack. Ruby Nell Mickle offered the prayer, with Bible reading by Henrietta Grimes. Henrietta Grimes also gave the program - a "Flying On" Installation Service for new officers for the coming year.

The business was conducted as usual. Secret pals were revealed, and new names drawn for the year. Members were encouraged to help Mrs. Lorene Bryan in mission work at the Elba Nursing Home.

Six new members were enrolled. The ladies encouraged all ladies of the Westside church to become involved in church activities. "We welcome them into our WMU programs," said Mrs. Mick.

Visitors were Mrs. Annette Johnson, Linda Rushing, Carolyn Kelley.

TRYING FOR HIGH GROUND

Just before the last crop of tomatoes was gone this year, a friend of mine picked a large box for us. His crop had been good and of course, I accepted his offer.

Eddy lives in a little settlement named Speedwell and his home is an old farm. He has done a creditable remodeling job and the house and farm are beautiful. Leaving the paved roads, I had a feeling of going back in time as I drove down the gravelled lane leading to the farm.

Eddy and his children were having a watermelon from their patch when we arrived. The women went inside to visit and Eddy said, "Let's go see the lake."

The backwaters of a large man-made lake rise within a couple of miles of Eddy's farm and the road is almost all downhill as it drops toward the riverbed.

No one was around when we reached the river except a man and his wife who were standing near a boat in the water. They told us they were waiting for a friend to bring a four-wheel drive vehicle, and we didn't wait long.

Soon a pickup truck topped the ridge. The driver backed the vehicle down to the water and hooked the trailer to the hitch. We moved back to watch the action, but the truck just sat and spinned the wheels.

A quick check of the locking mechanism revealed that the hags on the wheels were not engaging properly, and the driver tried again - but the wheels just spun.

It was beginning to get dark and for a few minutes I thought c'd'd be unable to get the boat out.

Finally, we decided to unhook the boat and trailer. We then were able to move the truck to higher ground. All of us then pushed the boat to safety.

Just before dark, the pickup was hit and the people drove out of sight. Eddy and I returned to the car and headed for home when a thought hit me. We had worked for nearly two hours getting that boat out of the water and I still didn't know the owner's name!

That may be some kind of commentary on the Christian way of life which has taught us to "do unto others as you would have them to do unto you!"

Angela Bartley Becomes Honor Star

Angela Bartley, 13, of New Bedford, and a freshman at Elba High School, has completed requirements for an "Honor Star" in the Missionette program of the Assembly of God Church.

Missionettes is an auxiliary of Women's Missionary Council. Their slogan is "Because We Care, We Share," and colors are white and blue, meaning Purity and Loyalty.

One of the requirements for becoming an Honor Star is reading the entire Bible.

Rev. O'Brien came to the Foreign Mission Board from the Lake Country Baptist Church of Fort Worth, Texas, where he had served as a pastor.

The second day's meeting will be held on Friday, October 22, at 9:30 a.m. at the Dorcas Baptist Church in the Chestnut Grove Community in northeast Coffee County. Rev. John Masters is the pastor. Dorcas was organized in 1924.

The State Missions Report will be brought by Dr. George E. Bagley of Montgomery, the Executive Secretary-Treasurer of the Alabama Baptist State Convention. His message will include a visual presentation.

The doctrinal sermon will be preached by Rev. Shepard, and the New Hope Church will present special music.

Dr. Richard Crowe is Director of Missions for the Coffee Association. "Coffee County Baptists have been involved in the extension of the Kingdom of God much longer than the 29 years of the Association's organization," said Dr. Crowe.

On October 30, 1968 the Pea River and New Hope Baptist Associations merged into the new existing Coffee County Association. There were approximately 30 churches involved in this merger. Today 45 churches are strategically located throughout the county.

Coffee Baptists To Meet At New Hope

The Coffee County Baptist Association will meet at the New Hope Baptist Church on October 21 at 6:30 p.m. for a two-day annual session, the 69th of the Association.

Approximately 300 elected messengers from the 45 churches of the Association will meet at New Hope, the Association's headquarters.

For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures; And that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures.

Elba Women On Task Force For Alcoholism

Mrs. Katherine Dorsey and Mrs. Carolyn Stokes have been named co-chairmen of the Women's Task Force on Alcoholism by the Coffee County. The Task Force, spearheaded by the South Central Alabama Regional Council on Alcoholism, is in the organizational phases for Coffee, Butler, Covington and Greenville counties.

Mrs. Dorsey and Mrs. Stokes recently attended a luncheon meeting held for volunteers from these counties at a restaurant in Andalusia.

The goal of the Task Force is to heighten public awareness of the problem of alcoholism, and what can be done to alleviate the problem. The volunteers will work toward removing the stigma attached to the alcoholic and the families of alcoholics will feel free to come forward to accept the help which is available.

Mrs. Dorsey commented, "Both Mrs. Stokes and I feel that the formation of a Task Force is a hopeful sign that the problem of alcoholism will reach the attention of the public and that we'll then be able to get the much needed help to alcoholics and their families. Anyone interested in obtaining further information about alcoholism or desiring confidential assistance with an alcoholic problem can contact the South Central Alabama Regional Council on Alcoholism, P. O. Box 1053, Andalusia, AL 36820, phone 222-4955."

BLACK AND GOLD REVIEW

Annual Sales Kicked Off

The 800 students of Elba High School jammed into the auditorium last Thursday to launch the annual sales campaign.

After a short film, the annual company's representative spoke to the students. Two names were drawn from those submitted as desiring an annual this year, and these students won free annuals. They were Gypsy Morrow in St. High and Kenneth Harrison in Jr. High.

Kenneth Harrison is editor of the annual staff, and Santoria Folmar, assistant editor, drew the names.

EDITORIAL

Have you gone through one entire day since school started and not heard any complaints from fellow students? Students, faculty members, parents, and everyone else seems to be disagreeing about so many things.

Why do things have to be so negative? Sure, everybody wants things changed. And others may be tired, but why waste time just complaining about things?

Try, for once, to analyze what the complaints are about. Is it a person? That's the worst thing to be down on because people are what they are. Something else? Would you say it to their face? Is it something that's really important, or is it something childish and rather immature. Is it just because everyone else is complaining or is it impossible to stand up for what is right? Is something reasonable or is it impossible to stand up for? Last, is it something to complain about or are YOU the problem?

If some of us would try to analyze our "gripes", maybe we wouldn't have quite so many of them. Isn't it more important to try to accept people, ourselves, and life's situations and be happy?

USDA Announces No 1977 Set-Aside Of Cropland

Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butz recently announced there will be no cropland set-aside in 1977. This decision followed the conclusion of a two-day meeting on Friday, September 17 of the National Advisory Committee on grains and cotton.

Secretary Butz said the decision for continued unrestricted production is based on the continuing strong export demand for grain, particularly for livestock feeding, soybeans and cotton. Under the 1973 Farm Act farmers have been given freedom to shift crops without restrictive acreage allotments. The Secretary said that farmers like the freedom for decision-making that exists under current programs. In view of projected large supplies of wheat in 1977, many wheat farmers are now making hard decisions in regard to better alternatives to planting wheat, comments by committee members indicate. On August 23 the U. S. Department of Agriculture announced an accelerated program for new public law 480 wheat export agreements for the next fiscal year beginning October 1 and that greater emphasis would be placed on wheat in the commodity credit corporation short-term export credit program in the new fiscal year.

In 1977 as in the present year, producers may substitute any non-conserving crop (except marketing quota crops) or any conserving crop (including approved volunteer crops) used for hay or for grazing in order to preserve their wheat, feed grain or cotton allotments.

Next year will be the fourth consecutive year for the feed grain and wheat programs and the fifth for the upland cotton program in which no set-aside was required. About 40 million acres of cropland have been brought back into production since 1972.

CATTLE OUTLOOK

Dan Linton, our marketing specialist at Auburn University, talked to me this week and said, "I don't see how a person could fail to make money on lightweight cattle on good grazing through the winter and spring. Good lightweight calves can be bought for 35-40¢ a pound, and we would expect these heavier cattle to sell for 45¢ or above late next spring when they come off the grass."

The big factor affecting our price of calves in our part of the country is the fact that feedlots are not feeding cattle as they were two or three years ago. However, there is a possibility on the demand for feeder cattle this fall. In many areas large supplies of silage are available and second and large feedlot capacity. A lot of these feedlots are so full that they cannot go for long periods of time at low capacity. On the negative side the demand for feeder cattle may be lessened because of losses on fed cattle. Another factor is relatively high feed prices and low fed cattle prices at the present time and earlier this year.

PEANUT OUTLOOK

Don McKnight, who works at the Federal - State Inspection Office in Dothan, told me that they expect the peanut crop to be off 20% this year. At the close of the week they had graded about 157,000 tons. Actually, this is about the same amount they had graded last year at this time. However, McKnight pointed out that there was still a lot of peanuts on top of the ground and a good many that had not been plowed up.

Even a 25% decrease over last year is certainly not disastrous because last year was a record crop. Perhaps the yields this time won't be over 10-15% below what it would be ordinarily. Considering the fact that July and August were extremely dry in many areas, I think we are fortunate to harvest the amount that is being harvested.

4-H LEADERS

Did you know that 36 leaders have volunteered to help Extension agents Dan Preley and Sandra Coffey with the 4-H Club program this year. Over 100 have volunteered county wide. They are signing up for the whole year's activity. There is no question about it. 4-H Club work is improving and moving forward in Coffee County.

Leaders in Elba are Mrs. Janice Donaldson, Mrs. Anne Tucker, Mrs. Margie Smith, Mrs. Betty Johnston, Mrs. Mildred Jolley, Mrs. Deloris Mills, Mrs. Hollie Kelley, Mrs. Kathy Smith, Mrs. Carolyn Kelley, Mrs. Kathy Cowen, Mrs. Janice Devane, Mrs. Kathleen Williams, Mrs. Margie Kelly, Mrs. Maxine Murph, Mrs. Joann Weeks, Mrs. Sammie Grantam, Mrs. Nellie Johnson, Mrs. Irene Kelley and Mrs. Doris Cooper.

HABITS

Someone said, "The chains of habit are generally too small to be felt until they are too strong to be broken." I saw that quotation and was reminded that many hundreds of Coffee County farmers are in the habit of waiting until after Christmas to soil test and they wait until February to test for nematodes. The habit built up over a number of years of not looking after time needs until a few weeks before planting is still with us. This is one of the habits that is costing growers money in Coffee County.

Soils were going to sell for 45¢ on Monday and 40¢ on Tuesday, most folks would make a real effort to get the bogs to market on Monday because extra profits are involved. The same is true of soil testing and nematode testing. These jobs need to be done when they will most benefit the farmers.

Neal Adkins To Head Beef Month Celebration

Neal Adkins, president of the Coffee County Cattlemen's Association, will head the October Beef Month Celebration in Coffee County for 1976.

Food Stamp Policy Explained in Report

About 4.4 million households or 6 per cent of the estimated 71.4 million U.S. households purchased food stamps in July 1975, according to a new report from the Bureau of the Census.

This figure represents a 42 per cent increase over the 3.1 million households receiving food stamps in May 1973.

Sixty per cent of the families had annual incomes below $4,000, while 5 per cent had incomes of $10,000 or more. The report points out that since a household's eligibility to buy food stamps is based on monthly income, a household may have a relatively large annual income but if its income for a month is below the maximum eligibility levels, it may qualify to purchase food stamps.

A person may cast a ballot in any county in which he is an eligible voter, but he or she cannot vote in more than one community in the county. If an eligible voter has separate farm interests in more than one community, special care will be taken to see that only one ballot is issued to that voter.

Several general provisions relate to ASC voter eligibility. A wife who operates a farm with her husband can vote if her name is on the deed of conveyance. Any person under 18 years of age can vote if he runs a farm, and a legal guardian who runs a farm for a child can vote for the child.

There are patterns for fates, handbags, belts and hats that can be made from old jeans. Or try your hand at making stuffed animals or a duffle bag. Another idea is to cut off the legs and use them as backpacks.

GOOD EATING HABITS

Do you have a young problem eater at your house? One who points his nose up at everything he's served and refuses to eat anything? Establishing good eating habits including food likes and dislikes are learned. So, parents, there are things you can do to help your children become good eaters.

Establish an eating schedule - children respond better to the food again later with favorite foods. It may take a little time for them to accept something new.

Remember that children's appetites - like adults' - vary from time to time. Children usually let you know how much they want to eat. And the amount differs from time to time so don't worry about changes in how much food is eaten.

Introduce one new food at a time. If your children won't eat a new food on the first go-round, don't push it. Include the food again later with favorite foods. It may take a little time for them to accept something new.

Make meal time a happy time. Children will eat better if meals are pleasant. The dinner table is not the place to settle family arguments or to scold your children for wrongdoing.

And remember, children learn by example. Children eat what they see older members of the family eating. So don't make an issue of good eating habits. Practice them yourself and your children will soon learn.

TIGERS WIN THE WAR!
It is really possible to lose the battle, but win the war? If so, then that is what the Elba Tigers did last Friday night. The Tigers lost the battle to Enterprise 20-7, but won the war by winning the fans.
In the past few years, the usually rabid Elba fans have developed a "who cares?" attitude about their football team. And who can blame them? Elba's always powerful football team has been on a losing streak, and struggled to 4-6, 4-4, and 5-5 records.
When this year's season began, there wasn't any excitement around town, and what little interest the fans had came out of curiosity. Everybody was wondering if this new coach could turn things around. Well, the Tigers whipped Brundidge 22-0, but so what? Next came Elba's 17-0 loss to Geneva, and the Tigers fans were dampened that just their clothes. Their spirit was on a verge of going back into hibernation. A 14-13 win over Laverne didn't win over many fans, and with Opp coming to town the following week, more than one fan felt Elba's record was about to again dip to 5-0. No so! The Tigers ripped Opp apart, and all of a sudden the major topic in town was football. Not Alabama or Auburn, but Elba High School football!
Friday night's loss to Enterprise seemed to unite the entire town behind their football team. The Tigers' gutsy play made the powerful Wildcats made everyone proud to cheer for Elba and brag about how good "their" football team is.
The pride about by the Tigers' last week spread up into the stands, and now for the first time in several years, nobody is blaming each other for Elba's losing.
I honestly feel that football is alive and well in Elba, and that the town will back their team, win or lose!

PREP ROUND-UP
There were no major upsets in prep football last week as the winners kept on winning!
Andalusia recorded its 36th straight regular season game without a defeat in dumping Opp 37-6. The Bulldogs, now 5-0, appear headed for another banner season.
Jeff Davis (4-1) laid claim to the Montgomery city title by thrashing previously unbeaten Lanier 56-0. The Vols are ranked 13th in the nation by a nationwide publication, and are definitely "Bama's Best."
Bradley went 5-0 by humbling Goshen 60-0. The IA Bulldogs are headed for a showdown with Homestead Academy in the playoffs.
Cottowood remained unbeaten in 2A by whipping Rehoboth 14-0. The Bears have one of the state's top runners in Tony Hardwick, who has gained 964 yards in only five games.
Eufaula raised its record to 5-1 by ripping Ozark 29-8. The Tigers have a powerful team, and come to town for homecoming.
Coffee County's trio of A schools went 1-2 last week to top the overall season record by 3 wins and 13 losses.
New Brockton (2-3) claimed the lone win by routing Castleberry 30-12, while Kingston (1-4) fell to Clio 39-16 and Zion Chapel (0-5) lost to Arion 8-0.

T.S.U. IS GOOD, BUT NOT GREAT
I guess I went to Troy last week expecting too much. I hadn't seen Troy State play, but I thought they were a powerhouse. I was wrong.
Troy did beat Livingston 17-9, but the Trojans did things right good teams don't do.
With about 40 left in the game, Livingston had the ball on the 5-yard line, and were trailing 17-9. Everybody in the packed stadium knew Livingston would have to pass, but apparently Troy State forgot. Livingston completed a pass down to the 17-yard line, and if the receiver hadn't fallen down, he would have scored. I say, I admit everybody is entitled to a mistake, but it wasn't just one mistake. Troy also (2) let Livingston block a punt for a safety, (3) had a punt return for a touchdown nullified by an obvious clipping call, and (4) had a receiver drop a sure touchdown pass.
Troy State is much improved, and is a good football team. However, great they ain't!

POLES PICKINS
Well, the one Polish Prognosticator hit on 14 of 16 high school sports last week for 87%. My first venture into college picking ended up 2-1-1. This time I'm just going to pick prep games, and leave the college predicting to the big boys!

ELBA-TROY The Tigers are coming around, and should prove too much for Troy. Chalk up Win No. 5 for Elba!
ELBA 30 - TROY 8

ZION CHAPEL - GOSHEN It's homecoming at Zion Chapel, and the Rebels should be fired up about last week's controversial loss to Arion. Zion Chapel wins No. 1!
ZION CHAPEL 12 - GOSHEN 8

NEW BROCKTON - FT. DEPOSIT The Gamecocks put it all together last week, but Ft. Deposit will prove too strong! Ft. Deposit 16 - New Brockton 11

KINSTON-PENSACOLA L. A. The Bulldogs should be after revenge. Pensacola will win they'd never left the sandy beaches! KINSTON 32 - P.L.A. 14

ENTERPRISE-LANIER The Wildcats should catch the Poets down after their 56-0 loss to Jeff Davis. Enterprise will win in a squeaker!

ANDALUSIA VS. ELBA
AT TIGER STADIUM
KICKOFF 7:00

TROY WILL BE READY FOR TIGER CHALLENGE

"It's our homecoming this week, and our boys are sky-high. I feel like we'll be ready for Elba!"
Those were the words of Charles Henderson high football coach William Davis when asked about this week's game with the Elba Tigers.
Charles Henderson's Trojans struggled to 2-8 records in 1974 and 1975, but are 2-4 this season, and have hopes of a 5-5 chart. The Trojans' wins came over Ozark 15-8, and St. Jude, 10-5.
"We've got a very young team," said Davis in a recent interview. "but we've also got a tremendous amount of enthusiasm. We only have four seniors that start off, and last week, we started six sophomores on offense."
Davis reported that due to his team's lack of size (only was about over 200 pounds) and lack of speed, the Trojans must try to play mistake-free football.
"Our offense has improved greatly over the last three games," added Davis, "but we just can't seem to push it in the endzone. We can move the ball between the 30's as well as anyone, but our inexperience keeps us from being able to push it on across for a score."
Davis added that the Troy defense has been hampered in recent weeks by a rash of injuries, but everyone should be proud for the Elba team, and running back Larry Phillips.
"I've got all the respect in the world for Elba," said Davis. "Coach Champion has done an excellent job, and their multiple offenses will be difficult to prepare for."

Continuing, the Trojan coach said, "In my opinion, Larry Phillips is the best running back in town Alabama, if not the state. Phillips has 6-8 speed, power, finesse - you just name it and he does it." By comparison, said Davis, "I'd have to say that Phillips is a better running back than Bobby Johnson of Andalusia." Davis added that for Troy to win, they must contain Phillips.
"We can't let him get out twice," said Coach John Sanders in a telephone interview. "but the ref's said no, and you can't argue about a judgment call."
Sanders was pleased with his team's improved play in closing, Sanders said, "We've been improving in the past two games, and I think we'll go out and get after Goshen!"

Hospital Adds New Equipment

Elba General Hospital is progressing by leaps and bounds. Within the last month two additions have been made to the Respiratory Therapy Department that will help increase the quality of medical care offered to the community.

One addition is that of an Arterial Blood Gas Analyzer. This sophisticated instrument is capable of supplying accurate measurements of the amounts of oxygen and carbon dioxide in the blood, as well as other important data, all of which is an important diagnostic tool for the physician.

The second addition is that of a new department head for Respiratory Therapy. Mr. Noel D. Falls took over department responsibilities on September 27, 1976, and has been working in close conjunction with the doctors and nursing staff at Elba General to assure that quality respiratory care can be offered to the patients. Mr. Falls is thoroughly trained in the field of respiratory therapy and can supply all therapeutic measures ordered by the physicians for their patients.

City Council Continues To Support Jail Plan

The Elba City Council met again this week, for the express purpose of "getting some things out of the way." The meeting was held on Monday night rather than Tuesday because the Water and Electric Board had a Tuesday meeting. All members were present for the meetings.

The meeting was opened with a prayer by Councilman John W. Sharpless. Police Chief Johnston gave a year-end report on the activities of his department. He reported a considerable decrease in crimes locally and a very high rate of solving those crimes that do occur. During the report the council took to explain his operation to the new city officials. Also, the machine presently used for testing drinking drivers (the drunk machine) was approved for continued use.

Bill McGuire appeared before the council and suggested that the City plan to help each year with the expenses of the girls representing Elba as Miss Elba in the National Peanut Festival. He was told that it was not a City of Elba affair; but two councilmen were appointed to look into the matter. Councilman Sharpless and Jimmy Wise were assigned to the committee.

Charles Jackson asked for immediate relief on a drainage problem in the area of his florist. He said heavy rains cause flooding in his building. He proposed the cleaning of a drainage ditch. Mayor Bob Folson appointed Councilman Mike Russell to set up a meeting with the Elba street superintendent and a representative of the Alabama Highway Department.

Councilman Wise was appointed to work closely with the local hospital and the medical clinic committee. This was in response to a request from the hospital board.

Mrs. Maie Bruce was appointed to be Elba Housing Authority. She is filling a vacancy created when D. M. English was elected to the City Council. English had to resign the ward position to take the position of the council. Also, P. Crook was reappointed as building inspector. He issues building permits, inspects construction and condemns unsafe buildings as well as a number of other duties for the city.

D. M. English was appointed to the Southeast Regional and Planning Commission to represent Elba. Actually, his name was only recommended to the County Commission, but heretofore the person recommended has gotten the appointment.

A letter from the Fire Department was read to the council. It praised the two police officers who were recently commended for their efforts in saving the life of a rural Coffee County man, but requested that "the Mayor and City Council instruct the proper authorities to always promptly inform the Fire Department of all fires and emergencies." There was some discussion on this matter, and some details about the case referred to in the letter. The council was told that off-duty police rescued the man, and there was no need for the Fire Department, and no call was ever made to the Police Department asking for the Fire Department. The latter statement was in response to a statement (or question) about the police checking a fire before the firefighters are called. (The police were the firefighters for a short time six or eight years ago and the idea just will not go away.)

The council discussed the proposed new county jail to be built in Elba. Reports had reached the county commissioners that the City of Elba was demanding a clause that the land revert to the city if no jail was built, the old jail and $16,000 to move the equipment from the site. The council did request the revert

Light Bill Increase Voted

A rate increase of about 25% has been added to the bill to continue the utility operation.

The increase from Alabama Electric was caused by an increase in the cost of electricity purchased from Alabama Power Company. Alabama Power sells electricity to the co-ops and their rate increase was approved by the Federal Power Commission in Washington, and the decision held up in court.

This increase is not a surprise to Elba residents, as the required increase was reported in this newspaper several weeks ago. It is some lower than the estimate given earlier, and board officials express hope that the increase will be enough to pay the operating expenses.

COMMISSION PROMISES SETTLEMENT ON COURTHOUSE-JAIL CONTROVERSY

The Coffee County Commission met in regular session on Monday, October 11, at the Courthouse annex in Enterprise, and after a lengthy discussion, promised to take final action on the courthouse and jail controversy at their next meeting.

The next meeting will be at 10:00 a.m. on Monday, October 18, at the Courthouse annex in Enterprise.

The meeting's first order of business was to hear a complaint by Mrs. Sue Patterson of Perry's Store Community on condition of the road passing in front of her residence. Mrs. Patterson told the commissioners that when it rains, the school bus will not go down the dirt road, and that it is impossible for the residents who live on the road to get out. Mrs. Patterson requested the road be paved, but added any immediate help would be appreciated. County engineer Bernard Richburg promised immediate relief, but expressed doubt on being able to pave the road.

Representative Jimmy Holley was next to address the commission, & the Elba attorney for the proposed Elba jail, spoke up and answered Mr. Beckham's question by saying, "There is a requirement in the application that it include a deed for the 'specific' construction site."

Donato reminded the Commission that there is a deadline for the application to be received and added, "You must break ground within 90 days of the grant being approved." Mr. Donato informed Mr. Holley line.

Holley replied, "We all met and agreed my new plan was good. It would help me if the County Commission revised their plans to back my bill."

In closing, Mr. Whitman stated, "We need to move ahead with the application. It won't interfere with Mr. Holley's proposed action."

Holley again spoke and asked County Attorney Braxton Rowe what would happen if the county went ahead right now and built a jail in New Brockton.

Rowe told Holley that, "It couldn't be done legally. The law says a jail will be built at the site of the courthouse."

Holley again spoke, saying, "Economic reasons dictate not building two jails before the people decide where the courthouse should be built."

Continuing, Holley asked what was in New Brockton the courthouse should be built, and was told by the commission to simply say within a one-mile radius of the Farm Center.

Commissioner Smith made a motion to bring in the regional planners to do a cost survey of building a courthouse and jail in each proposed site. Beckham seconded the motion, but it was defeated by a 4-2 vote.

Judge Sawyer told the commission it must decide where it will borrow money to build

Two wrecks happened within a five minute span on Thursday, Oct. 7 on Highway 166 approximately 1/10 mile from Kleinerters.

The first accident occurred when Gene Boswell, driving a 1971 Chevrolet, lost control of his car and skidded off the roadway into a deep gully.

Molly Boswell, a passenger in the car, sustained back injuries in the mishap, and was transported to Elba General Hospital by the rescue squad.

A passing motorist stopped to aid the Boswells but failed to move his car from the road. The second accident occurred when a 1976 Dodge, driven by Morris prepares to move juke box.

Raid Nets Whiskey, Beer And Jukebox

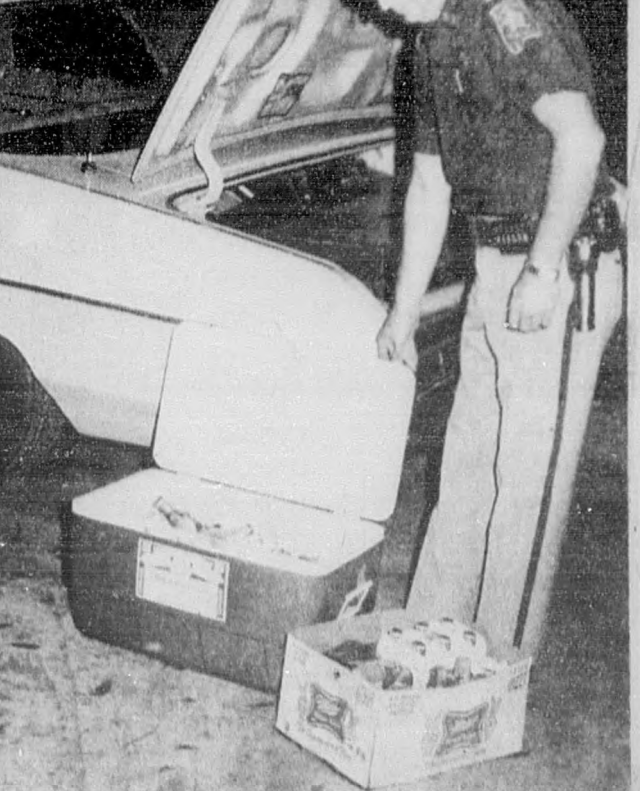

A dual raid Friday at 6:10 p.m. by the Coffee County Sheriff's Department resulted in several arrests and charges of illegal alcoholic beverages for re-sale, operating a gambling house, and gambling.

The arrests were made at the home of M. D. Lee and the home of Neil Newsome, according to Sheriff Neil Grantham.

Both M. D. Lee and Neil Newsome were charged with possession of illegal alcoholic beverages for re-sale. Others charged in the raids include Dixie Chappell and Willie C. Rogers.

A juke box was taken from one of the North Coffee County houses, along with a large amount of beer and several bottles of whiskey and wine.

Ray Norris checks cabinets. Empty cans and bottles abound in and around one of the houses.
